

A+ Science Newsletter, January 2018

"What you get by achieving your goal is not as important as what you become by achieving your goals."

Henry David Thoreau

A+ Science wishes you a happy new year 2018 and hope you all had a restful holiday season and good time with family and friends.

January is the time when many of us reassess our busy lives and think about what we want to accomplish or do to balance our lives during the new year. We are therefore ready to begin a new year with a fresh start, with that in mind we would like to remind our readers of our services.

A+ Science is a complete clinical service CRO providing services for pharmaceuticals (Phase I-IV) as well as medical device studies. Our core expertise is in the Nordic Countries, however through our close collaboration with several CROs, we cover additional geographical locations. Founded over two decades ago, A+ Science has a depth of knowledge and experience to meet the needs of customers by offering customized and flexible solutions.

We offer a unique and personalized environment where every clinical study receives priority service for its choice of qualified personnel. Our small size and our commitment to customer satisfaction manifests in our thorough, responsive and skilful administration of each study. Through this personalized attention and partnership given to each of our customers, A+ Science team actively encourages innovation while helping customers achieve their research goals.

A+ Science is proud to announce that Elin Folmerz has joined the company. Elin joins the company as a Clinical Start Up Specialist / Clinical Research Associate. Elin holds a Master's degree in Biomedicine from Uppsala University and has for the last year worked as a CRA at another CRO. Elin has proven experience in several aspects of both pharmaceutical clinical trials and medical device studies, from EC and CA submissions to monitoring.

Elin Folmerz

"I am excited to become part of A+ science, a small and genuine company with a very positive atmosphere. I have received such a warm welcome from my colleagues, so I am eager to get to know the company and co-workers more and get started in my new role!" says Elin Folmerz.

Our vision is to become the CRO best known for its unique and dedicated personnel with focus on customer satisfaction. To Earn Trust- Make Difference.
